

Application for NZAS Provisional Membership – Overseas Applicant – PART ONE

Thank you for applying for provisional membership of the NZAS as an overseas applicant.

This application comes in two parts.

Part One: This part can be submitted before you have an employer and supervisor in New Zealand. If your application is accepted, you will be provided with confirmation that you are eligible for provisional audiologist membership of the NZAS, subject to successful submission of Part Two. Please ensure you complete all sections in full to enable us to promptly process your application. We aim to do this within four weeks. Failure to complete all information may result in delays of the processing of this application.

Part Two: This part can be submitted after you have an employer and supervisor in New Zealand.

It is possible to submit both Part One and Part Two at the same time. A maximum of one year may elapse between submission of Part One and Part Two.

Please complete everything from the checklists provided when you submit your application.

PART ONE

1. Country of Qualification and English language Requirement
2. Personal information
3. NZAS Code of Ethics Agreement
4. Supporting documentation
5. Application, membership and examination fees
6. Provisional Membership Application Checklist – Part One

PART TWO

7. Clinical certification period and supervision
8. Nomination for provisional NZAS membership
9. Supervision Plan
10. Provisional Membership Application Checklist – Part Two

Please note this application is for Provisional Membership status only. You must obtain an NZAS CCC (Certificate of Clinical Competence) to be entitled to apply for full membership status.

You will find further information regarding the CCC on the NZAS website (www.audiology.org.nz).

1) COUNTRY OF QUALIFICATION AND ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

Country for Audiology Qualification

My audiology qualification was obtained in the following country:

- US, Canada or Australia
- Country other than those stated above

English Language Requirement

Is English your second language? YES / NO

Was your audiology qualification taught in a language other than English? YES / NO

If "Yes" to either of the above, please submit evidence of IELTS test results*.

- * English language requirement – candidates must be able to communicate in and understand English for the purpose of practising audiology. To prove this, candidates must successfully complete an International English Language Testing System (IELTS) Academic Test with a score of no less than 7.5 in Speaking, 7.5 in Listening, 7.0 in Writing and 7.0 in Reading and an average score of 7.5 or higher before applying for membership. This does not need to be achieved in a single sitting of the IELTS test but can be gained over a succession of tests. The required score for each test component must be less than two years old at the time the application to NZAS is submitted. You can take the test in your country of residence.
