

Audiology partnerships – Canterbury region

Are you looking to make your next career move? A Joint Venture Partnership with Specsavers could be just the opportunity you've been looking for.

We have two fantastic partnership opportunities now available in the Canterbury region. These prime locations are the perfect place for an ambitious and dedicated audiologist to start their own business – all with the support of the Specsavers brand behind you.

At Specsavers, we're not about product related KPIs or sales targets, we're about empowering our partners to deliver high-quality hearing care every day. You'll bring the passion and clinical expertise, and we will provide support to you in delivering world-class products via an agile supply chain, award-winning marketing, reliable IT systems, and a wealth of training and development.

And, as a partner, you'll receive a guaranteed market-rate salary in addition to your share of business profits, for the lifetime of your partnership. Giving you the stability and security to focus on growing your business and caring for your customers.
